

Attention Four-D College Vocational Nursing Students

The Board of Vocational Nursing and Psychiatric Technicians (Board) has received information relative to the sudden closure of Four – D College, Colton and Four – D College, Victorville. In addition to other programs, both schools offered vocational nursing programs.

The following options are available to vocational nursing students enrolled at the time of program closure.

1. Students may apply for admission to other vocational nursing programs, requesting transfer credit for previously completed theory and clinical instruction.
2. Students with prior paid work experience may apply for vocational nurse licensure based on equivalent education and experience.

To assist students, the Bureau for Private Postsecondary Education has scheduled informational meetings in Apple Valley and Riverside at the following locations on Friday, July 17, 2015.

➤ Apple Valley Location

James Woody Community Center Auditorium
13467 Navajo Road
Apple Valley, CA 92307

Time: 8:00 A.M. – 5:00 P.M.

➤ Riverside Location

3737 Main Street
Arlington Room
Riverside, CA 92501

Time: 8:00 A.M. – 5:00 P.M.

These meetings will present options for you, including:

- 1) Applications for the Student Tuition Recovery Fund.
- 2) Information regarding federal student loan discharge.
- 3) Information on how to obtain financial aid documents, transcripts, and additional school records.

Additionally, a list of Board – approved vocational nursing programs that are within a 100 mile radius of the Four-D sites will be provided. In selecting a new program, you are advised to consider the distance of the program from your base or home location, the program's pass rates, and other variables specific to your needs. Program pass rate data is available at http://www.bvnpt.ca.gov/education/vn_stats.shtml.

Please contact the Board to let us know of your concerns or questions. You can reach the Board's Education Division by email at bvnpt@dca.ca.gov and listing Four-D Concern in the title of your email. You may also call the Education Division at (916) 263-7843. If you call, please slowly and clearly state your name, phone number, address, and that you are calling about the closure of Four – D College.
