Enforcement Division Changes

The Board has an aggressive enforcement program to ensure that timely and appropriate disciplinary action is taken against unprofessional, incompetent, or grossly negligent practitioners. During the course of an investigation, the Board utilizes the Division of Investigation and its Special Investigations Unit to investigate cases outside of the realm of its Enforcement Division staff. The Board's Special Investigators are independent fact finders meaning they are impartial and are only determining the facts of the case. Under no circumstance do the Special Investigators make recommendations on the outcome of enforcement cases. Due to this distinct difference in job duties, the Board has separated the Special Investigations Unit from the Enforcement Division. The Enforcement Division Chief and the Supervising Special Investigator do not report to each other; rather they both report directly to the Board's Assistant Executive Officer. This will alleviate any conflict of interest between the two units.

Commencing at the next Board Meeting, there will be separate reports presented by the Enforcement Chief and the Supervising Special Investigator. This change will provide more detailed information and will allow the Board Members to provide input for each unit on business processes and performance measures.
